The devil will never tell you that you are dying, but turn to God for a good life.

There is really no point to doing things apart from God. Non-God stuff has no longevity. It might seem popular, but non-God stuff leads nowhere. All the people acting cool are a bluff with nothing behind the mask. I have abundant life with God. Don't get me wrong, I love me some secular music, but it has no message. Even though I tell the same story about God different ways, it is clear: I'm not hiding anything. Following satan leads to listlessness in the shadows and dark alleys. He won't tell you that you are following him either. There is nothing to his message. His message is a disguise or leads to disease and addiction. And he will never tell you his goals for you: death, separation from God. And God will hold you fully accountable for your actions, even though you are unaware of what you are doing. I know because I have a life sentence of bipolar. But I have blessings too.

I have watched a few videos and few messages that do not even penetrate into Christian circles: when you place your faith in Christ, you are completely forgiven. As it says, "There is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus." I have trouble believing this, but God makes us totally free. He never accuses us or tries to use our actions against us. He is not micromanaging us. We are free. Yes, he will try to lead us to better actions, better thoughts about Him & life. He is loving and knows what is best for us. But He never holds things against us. At least, I don't think He does. I don't always act like I believe it, but I think it is true. God abounds in love & mercy.

I will admit that I think non-believers make better music, graphic design, and art. I am not sure why. But I'm going to do my best to change that. Pro-God Jim Bures.

God is gentle. God is kind. He takes His time with us, weening us off our sin. When I look back at life, I think what a fool I've been. But in the present, I have a loving God & fun times. I have all the friends I need. That's another nice thing about being Christian: the love and the friendships are tremendous. Highly recommend.

Well, I have babbled on through another issue. I hope you have enjoyed this Etoonin'. Drawing cartoons is similar to baseball. If 30% of them are good, you're hitting well. My current employment was extended six months. I'm past the honeymoon phase. Going to work is hard. But God keeps me going. I interviewed for an additional very part-time job. Could God be leading me to value work? I doubt it. Work is pretty stupid, unless you happen to be a cartoonist! Then it is all fodder! May God bless you! That's what He wants to do. He loves you! I do too.
